

BENJAMIN DAVIES

Email: bldavies@stanford.edu

Website: bldavies.com

Education

Stanford University

PhD in Economics (advised by Matthew Jackson and Arun Chandrasekhar) 2020–

University of Canterbury

BSc(Hons, 1st class) in Economics and Mathematics 2014–17

Working Papers

The value of conceptual knowledge (with Anirudh Sankar)

Learning about a changing state

Publications

Gender sorting among economists: Evidence from the NBER, Economics Letters 2022

COVID-19, lockdown and two-sided uncertainty (with Arthur Grimes), New Zealand Economic Papers 2022

Research funding and collaboration (with Jason Gush, Shaun C. Hendy, and Adam B. Jaffe), Research Policy 2022

Relatedness, complexity and local growth (with David C. Maré), Regional Studies 2021

Technical and Policy Reports

Estimating sample paths of Gauss-Markov processes from noisy data 2024

Delineating functional labour market areas with estimable classification stabilities (with David C. Maré) 2020

Climate change adaptation within New Zealand's transport system (with Anthony Byett and others) 2019

Awards

William Georgetti Scholarship (for “best brains” in New Zealand) 2020

Seamus Hogan Memorial Prize (for best thesis in economics at Canterbury) 2017

Cook Memorial Prize (for top honors mathematics student at Canterbury) 2017

Sir Frank Holmes Prize (for top undergraduate economics student in New Zealand) 2016

Research and Professional Experience

Stanford University

Research Assistant to Matthew Jackson 2021–22

Motu Economic and Public Policy Research

Research Analyst 2018–20

PwC

Actuarial Consulting Intern 2015–16

Teaching Experience

Stanford University

Teaching Assistant for ECON 137 (Decision Modeling and Information) 2025

Teaching Assistant for BUSGEN 143 (Finance, Corporations, and Society) 2025

Teaching Assistant for ECON 43 (Personal Finance) 2023–24

Teaching Assistant for ECON 135 (Foundations of Finance) 2022–24

University of Canterbury

Teaching Assistant for FINC 331 (Financial Economics) 2017

Teaching Assistant for ECON 208 (Intermediate Microeconomics) 2016–17

Teaching Assistant for ECON 321 (Microeconomic Theory) 2016–17

Conference Presentations

NBER Summer Institute (Science of Science Funding) 2021

American Economic Association Annual Meeting 2021

New Zealand Association of Economists Conference, Wellington 2019

New Zealand Association of Economists Conference, Auckland 2018

European Group of Risk and Insurance Economists Annual Seminar, London 2017